📊 KRATTOS AI Enterprise System

📅 Monthly Performance Dashboard Summary

◆ Executive Summary

The KRATTOS AI Enterprise System provides a real-time snapshot of key enterprise metrics. The data below reflects current status and performance trend vs. the previous month.

📁 Project Metrics

Metric	Value	Trend
Total Projects	4	🔼 +12% (vs. prev. month)
Active Projects	2	🔼 +8% (vs. prev. month)
Total Tasks	24	🔻 -5% (vs. prev. month)

🔍 Insight: While total and active projects increased, total tasks declined by 5%, indicating either better task consolidation or a slowdown in operational assignments.

💵 Financial Metrics

Metric	Value	Trend
Budget	$58,000,000.00	🔼 +15% (vs. prev. month)
Procurement	$750,000.00	🔼 +2% (vs. prev. month)

🔍 Insight: The significant budget increase (+15%) suggests expansion or new project onboarding. Procurement growth remains stable but modest.

👥 Human Resources

Metric	Value	Trend
Employees	48	🔼 +3% (vs. prev. month)

🔍 Insight: Employee count growth remains healthy, aligning with the increase in projects.

📈 Budget vs. Actual Spending Analysis (Monthly)

Month	Budget	Actual	Difference
Jan	$2.1M	$1.9M	-$0.2M
Feb	$1.8M	$1.7M	-$0.1M
Mar	$2.4M	$2.2M	-$0.2M
Apr	$1.9M	$1.8M	-$0.1M
May	$2.0M	$1.6M	-$0.4M
Jun	$2.6M	$2.4M	-$0.2M

🔍 Insight: Across all months, actual spending remains consistently below budget, reflecting good cost control. However, the largest gap appears in May with a $0.4M underspend.

📌 Key Highlights

- Projects and budget are growing steadily month-over-month.
- Task volume is slightly declining—needs review to ensure operational productivity isn't impacted.
- Spending is within budget, suggesting financial discipline.
- Employee growth supports the scaling project portfolio.

📤 Recommendation

- Analyze reduction in task volume to identify if it's due to efficiency or project delays.
- Consider reallocating unused budget portions for innovation, training, or rapid prototyping.
- Maintain focus on balancing procurement growth with actual utilization.
